

EY Resource

Listen to the children who are telling us about leaders they know. Can you think of any leaders you know? What are they a leader of? What do they have to do as a leader?

Source: sheetal saini

My parents are the leaders of our house. They look after me and my sister. They tell us when we have to go to bed and make sure we always clean our teeth!

My mummy is a leader at her work. She has five people who work for her and she gives everyone jobs to do every day.

Source: Family O'Connell

My dance teacher is the leader of my dance class. She shows us lots of different dance moves and helps us when we find it hard.

Source: Honza Soukup

My teacher is the leader of the class at school. He takes the register and tells us all the different things we can choose to do that day. If someone is naughty or hurt, my teacher will sort it all out.

Source: Bill Benzon